THE CENTRE accepts its responsibility to make its courses as safe as is reasonably practicable. However, adventurous activities are inherently hazardous and cannot be completely risk free, however hard we try.
Accidents can happen without any contributory negligence from the centre or its staff. The centre can accept no responsibility for loss or damage to personal property or for personal injury not arising as a result of its own act or default.
I understand and accept the above statements and accept that I have a responsibility to take careful note of instructions and to act in a way that will minimise the likelihood of injury. I am fit for the course and will inform the centre before the course of any special medical conditions that might affect my safety.

PHOTOGRAPHS
Sometimes, during the course of activities at Dukes Barn, pictures are taken of young people enjoying themselves. These may be used for our own publicity purposes, for example on static displays, website, information leaflets or annual reports. If you have no objection to photographs being used in this way, please let us know by signing below. You can be assured we would never consider making use of a picture, which might cause embarrassment.
